School of Prayer and Ministry

*A Short-Term Ministry Training School for Deaf People
(In class or external study)*

Please note the word, "Deaf" defines all levels of hearing loss, whether one is part of Deaf community or not and whether one use sign language or not.

Bringing the Kingdom of God to the Deaf Community

Purpose:

The School of Prayer and Ministry is a short-term course established for those keen to get out and doing the Lord's work among the deaf people.

The School of Prayer and Ministry aims to fulfill the mission outlined in Ephesians 4, that is, to equip the saints to do the work of the ministry.

It is expected that at the end of each term, the student will learn and execute basic practices of the ministry.

Who Can Participate?

Any believer, deaf or hearing who are keen to serve the Lord in Deaf harvest.

However, it is required of the School of Prayer and Ministry students to live committed and holy life for Jesus and show commitment to serve the Lord.

Every believer is required of God to fulfill the Great Commitment. It is assumed the student would have a general knowledge of the Word before applying.
